A number of pleasant events have enlivened the past week, balls, card-parties, Kensingtons and dinners making up a delightful social record.

Interest in current events, however, has been partially dwarfed by that in regard to the coming big affairs of the next two weeks, namely the complimentary reception and ball to be given by the Co-operative Wagon and Machine company next Thursday, and the St. Mark's hospital ball in the following week. Towards these all eyes and social preparations are converging-both promising to rank amongst the most elaborate social events ever given in Salt Lake.

On Wednesday Mrs. Walter Beatle and Mrs. W. B. Dougall entertained at a Kensington at the residence of Mrs. Beatle on West Temple street.

The parlors, which are furnished in oriental style, were prettily decorated with palms, red carnations and ferns, and in the dining room blue tints prevailed in the adornment.

A pleasing feature of the afternoon was a guessing contest, dainty baby ribbon being wound cleverly about a silver thimble and each guest given a chance to guess the number of yards wound on the thimble. Fellowing this was a card cutting contest for the consolation prize. The wiener in the guess.

The bay window in which the bridal party stood was banked with palms, and a canopy of smilax starred with white lillies stretched from the window to the chandeller, which was prettily festooned with the green. The lights were shaded with white and green, and carnations and ferns were arranged in vases about the room. Sprays of smilax festooned the curtains carrying out the idea of white and green. In the dining room rose pink prevailed, roses being used, with shades and ribbons of pink aiding in the pretty effect. The bride wore an exquisite imported creation of white lace over taffeta, trimmed with ruffles of white satin ribbon and carried bride roses.

Punch was served during the evening by Miss Lucile Badger, Miss Mamie Harrington of Ogden and Miss Dalsy Fox. Assisting in the dining room were Miss Frances Young, Miss Viola Fox and Miss Edna Clark.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Young, the former of the Deseret National bank, and the groom is the brother of Senator W. G. Nebeker of the State Legislature. Mr. and Mrs. Nebeker will be at home to their friends after Feb. 20th, at their residence on Sixth East between First and Second South, No cards.

Everyone is on the qui vive of expectancy over the big ball and house warming of the Co-op. Wagon and Machine company on Thursday evening next. Over 1,200 invitations have been sent out and a big part have returned favorable responses, many coming from as far as Idaho to attend. Those who have not as yet sent a response should consult Manager Odell's official notice in another column of the "News."
